Smiley Lodge, No. 90, I. O. O. F.

This woman visited Jackson on Tuesday of week last, and gave her name here as Mrs. Ann Stone, the widow of William Stone, of Richmond Lodge, No. 208, Richmond, Missourl. She was accompanied by the same two NATCHEZ AND JACKSON RAILchildren, and also by a man of about 35 years of age. She sought assistance first from the Odd Fellows and then from the Masons. Richmond Lodge being telegraphed to about William Stone, the alleged husband, replied that the Lodge never had such a member. She is a woman of spare, medium figure, red hair, and teeth very much discolored by the use of snuff, and is enroute for Montgomery, Alabama, via Meridian.

Cheapest, Best, and Most & Beautiful School-Now published. The "University Series" embraces MAURY'S GEOGRAPHICAL SERIES,

By Commodore M. F. Marray, of the Virginia Military Institute. A series of books wis mark an era in the study of this science, and which, in the words of a well known and a complished Southern teacher, "are characterized by a felicity of arrangement and freshness of style which must ever render them attractive to the young, and which w used by all who wish to teach geography as a science, as something to make pupils and not merely as an enumeration of dry facts." Holmes' Readers and Spellers, By George F. Holmes, LL.D., Professor of History and General Literature in the U.

versity of Virginia. A series of Readers unequalled in cheapness, excellence, and a graphical beauty. They are steadily progressive in character, bright and fresh in selections of prose and verse, and illustrative of Southern scenes, incidents, and history. Venable's Arithmetical Series, By CHARLES S. VENABLE, LL.D., Professor of Mathematics in the University Virginia. These books are received everywhere by intelligent teachers with the his satisfaction, as being most admirably adapted for mental drill, as well as for business tion. Their methods, rules, and reasonings are clear, distinct, logical, and compand the series is carefully graded throughout.

Holmes' History of the United States, By George F. Holmes, LL.D., of the University of Virginia. It is enough to my this admirable work, interesting, impartial, and truthful, as well as pure and gracial style, that it is the only History of the United States which is strictly apparent. De Vere's French Grammar, Readers, etc.,

Clidersleeve's Latin Series, Carter's Elements of Ceneral History, Holmes' English Grammars, Le Conte's Scientific Series, Johnston's English Classics,

Duntonian Writing-Books, etc., etc. Send for our new ILLUSTRATED DESCRIPTIVE CATALOGUE, which will be mailed free to any teacher or school-officer. It tells what teachers think of the books, contains specimen pages of each.
